(d) if so, what are the reasons for not considering — some Rashtriya Sanskrit Vidyapeethams and the degrees issued by them for recruitment in Defence establishments, universities and other Government offices?

THE MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (DR. MURLI MAHOHAR JOSHI): (a) Only to Rashtriya Sanskrit Vidyapeethas have been recognized as deemed to be Universities in 1987 under Section 3 of the UGC Act, 1956.

(b) Sri Lal Bahadur Shastri Rashtriya Sanskrit Vidyapeeth, New Delhi and Rashtriya Sanskrit Vidyapeeth, Tirupati.

(c) The degree certificates issued by Sri Lal Bahadur Shastri Rashtriya Sanskrit Vidyapeeth are recognized at par with all Universities except, Delhi University, which does not yet recognize the Vidyapeeth's Acharya degree (equivalent to M.A.). The degree certificates of Rashtriya Sanskrit Vidyapeeth, Tirupati, are recognized by 27 Universities at present.

(d) The degree certificates issued by the two Rashtriya Sanskrit Vidyapeethas and the Kendriya Sanskrit Vidyapeethas are recognized by the Central Government for the purpose of employment and all defence establishments for recruitment for religious teachers. In addition, the degrees of Kendriya Sanskrit Vidyapeethas are recognized by 39 Universities and 17 State Governments. Efforts are afoot to ensure that all Universities and all State Governments recognize the degree certificates of these Vidyapeethas for purpose of recruitment and equivalence.
